NEW DELHI

The Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) of Delhi, Dr Ranbir Singh today on the occasion of International Day of Older Persons 2022 informed that the Office of the CEO via SDMs/ BLOs of 11 Districts of the NCT of Delhi felicitated the centenarian voters of Delhi for their valuable contribution and being an inspiration for the younger generations/ young voters and strengthening the overall democratic process. SDMs/ BLOs of the respective district felicitated them by visiting their home and a personalized addressed letter from the Hon'ble Chief Election Commissioner (CEC), Sh. Rajiv Kumar in a beautiful frame was handed over to the centenarian voters.

The SDM of New Delhi handed over the letter from CEC along with a bouquet to Mrs. Malini Kao (102 years of age) a resident of Vasant Vihar, Delhi for her valuable contribution in bolstering the electoral process. Similarly Sitara Jain age 111 West Gorakhpur AC 67 Babarpur was felicitated by SDM.

It is a matter of joy for the Election Commission of India (ECI) and Office of the CEO, Delhi that our Senior Voters have set an example for the youth through their continuous zeal of actively participating in the democratic process and thereby strengthening Indian Democracy. It is because of such commitment from our elder voters that we as a democracy are flourishing and shining in the world.

In order to ensure maximum participation of senior citizens (80+ age group) and Voters with Disabilities, the ECI has introduced many facilitations like wheelchairs, ramps, volunteers, free 'to and fro' transport facilities and queue-less voting are a few of the facilities available to every elder voter. Further, our elder voters can also cast their vote from the comfort of their home by filling up the form 12D.

The CEO thanked all elder voters for inspiring young voters towards fulfilling their Constitutional Duties and expressed his gratitude.

By casting vote during elections, our elder voters demonstrate the real meaning of the value of One vote which is so inspiring, said CEO Delhi.
