NEW DELHI:

Dated: 25.11.2022

The Chief Electoral Officer, Delhi Dr. Ranbir Singh today addressed the leaders and officers of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) in a meeting, seeking their cooperation in raising awareness amongst their employees, industry members and other stakeholders about the ongoing Special Summary Revision (SSR) - 2023 Programme. The CEO, Dr. Ranbir Singh informed that the primary objective of the Special Summary Revision – 2023 is to include newly eligible and left out voters w.r.t.01.01.2023 i.e. who have completed or will be completing age of 18 years on or before date 01.01.2023. Advance application can be filed by 17+ old citizens who will be completing 18 yr from 2nd January to 1st October 2023. Another objective for the Special Summary Revision-2023 is to give register any change in address or other particulars (Form-8) and to invite objections against any wrong inclusion in the Electoral Roll (Form-7). Divyang residents should download the PwD app, which is the ECI's fully accessible mobile app.

He said that online services are quicker, more efficient, and safer. In addition to the mobile apps, online electoral services are available at www.nvsp.in. Citizens can contact the election helpline No.1950 from 9.00 a.m. to 9.00 p.m. on all days excluding national holidays in case for any information or feedback.

Dr. Ranbir Singh stated that, according to the Election Commission of India's schedule, the Draft Electoral Roll was published on November 9, 2022, and claims and objections will be received from November 9, 2022 to December 8, 2022. During this timeframe, eligible voters who have reached the age of 18 on or before January 1, 2023, can fill out Form 6 along with photo address and age proof. Those who are not internet savvy can file applications off line by travelling to Polling Stations or Voter Centers. For more information, citizens can visit www.ceodelhi.gov.in or call 1950. The second phase of Special camps will be organised on 26th and 27th of November to facilitate the process of enrolment of voters at all polling stations of Delhi.

According to the CEO Delhi, the main priorities for the Special Summary Revision-2023 are the following:-

1. All citizens should download the Voter Helpline app, and all Divyang citizens should download the PwD app.
2. All citizens with Voter ID cards should check their names using the Voter Helpline app or by sending SMS ECI SPACE> Voter ID on 1950 or by searching <https://electoralsearch.in>.
3. All residents should help in deletion of deceased or permanently relocated voters from the Electoral Roll by submitting Form 7.

These initiatives will result in a significant improvement in the Electoral Roll's health, quality, accuracy. CEO, Delhi also requested that all citizens follow the CEO office's social media accounts (@ ceodelhioffice) on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube.

CII assured that the organization will organise meetings, events and other activities to raise voter awareness during the Special Summary Revision-2023.
