

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER, DELHI
Old St. Stephen's College Building,
Kashmere Gate, Delhi-110006

PRESS RELEASE

Special Camps organised in the all polling stations in National Capital of Delhi to enroll new voters- Dr. Ranbir Singh

These camps ensured timely assistance to general public especially young electors- CEO Delhi

Hurry up! Only 2 days left to apply for inclusion as voter during the ongoing Special Summary Revision. Last date is 30th November 2021: Dr. Ranbir Singh, CEO Delhi

District Magistrates visited the 27-28 November special camps within their jurisdiction to see the arrangements made.

NEW DELHI:

Dated:- 28.11.2021

The Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) of Delhi, Dr. Ranbir Singh today informed that to bolster voter awareness and facilitate enrollment of voters Special Camps were organized on 27th and 28th November in all polling stations of Delhi. These camps aimed to provide every possible assistance like searching the name in the voter list, enrolment for Voter ID card, correction in voter ID, deletion of name, etc. to the general public. There are a total of 13,820 polling stations set up across the national capital.

Dr. Singh further said that this campaign for voter awareness and facilitation will not only help the electors to get all necessary assistance, but will also give wings to the vision of 'No Voter To Be Left Behind'. District Magistrates also visited these camps within their jurisdiction to see the arrangements made. The special camps received great appreciation from citizens.

Dr. Singh stated that the Special Summary Revision-2022 is going on in full swing with the theme of “Chalo Voter Bane Hum” under campaign “Delhi ka Voter Utsav” and only two days are left for all citizens to get enrolled as 30th November is the last date for submitting application for inclusion as voter during the ongoing Special Summary Revision. The CEO informed that during the SSR any person who would be of 18 years or more on or before 01.01.2022 is eligible to enroll as a voter. He also said that Draft Rolls are displayed in all polling stations where citizens can check their names in the voter list and applications for addition, corrections or deletion of names can be submitted on the spot. More than 13000 Booth Level Officers (BLOs) are proactively engaging with the citizens under their jurisdiction and encouraging the newly eligible as well as left out voters to enroll themselves in the voter list.

The CEO also emphasized the need to adopt on-line mode of availing electoral services. For this advised every 18+ citizen to download ECI's VoterHelpline App. Divyang citizens may download the PwD App of ECI. Online application can also be filed on ECI's portal www.nvsp.in. For any queries or assistance, citizens can call the election helpline number 1950 from 9.00 AM to 9.00 PM on all days except national holidays, he added or visit www.ceodelhi.gov.in also.

Dr. Ranbir Singh further informed that, those who are not internet-savvy can file applications off-line by travelling to Polling Stations or Voter Centers or Common Service Centers.

The CEO further said that citizens who already have a voter ID should verify their name in the voter list on VoterHelpline App or by sending SMS (ECI <space> VoterID number) to 1950. If the name is not found they should file Form-6 for registering again.

CEO Delhi also appealed to all citizens of Delhi to follow @Ceodelhioffice on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram to stay updated on electoral services on a daily basis.
