NEW DELHI

Dated: 10.11.2023

The Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) of Delhi, Sh. P. Krishnamurthy, today visited the Rashtrapati Bhawan to facilitate the Hon'ble President of India, Smt. Droupadi Murmu, in changing her Voter ID address to Delhi. In an exemplary display of democratic participation, the Hon'ble President filled out Form-8 to initiate the address update process.

The Hon'ble President of India will be eligible to cast her vote in forthcoming election from District New Delhi. CEO, Delhi apprised Hon'ble President of India about the ongoing Special Summary Revision-2024.

As a result of this, the Hon'ble President of India is set to receive a new Voter ID card, reflecting her updated residential address in Delhi.

The Chief Electoral Officer expresses gratitude to the Hon'ble President of India for her cooperation in this electoral endeavor. This collaborative effort exemplifies the dedication to maintaining the integrity of the electoral process at the highest levels of governance.
