The Chief Electoral Officer of Delhi, on Wednesday attended a Talk Show on the theme "Participation of Youth in the Electoral System" organized by Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini, Delhi.

NEW DELHI

Dated: 05.05.2022

The Chief Electoral Officer of Delhi, Dr. Ranbir Singh said that Youth are the most important and dynamic segment of the population and their influence can significantly increase electoral awareness.

On Wednesday, 4th May 2022 the CEO attended a Talk Show held in the Tecnia Institute of Advanced Studies, Rohini, Delhi as a Chief Guest along with Ms R. Menaka, DEO, North District, Sh. J L Gupta, OSD, Dr. Manvinder Jha, Dean Academics and Dr. Ajay Kumar, Director, TIAS. The theme of the Talk Show was 'Participation of Youth in the Electoral System'.

The main highlight of the programme was the Question-Answer Session which emphasized on Electoral Literacy. During the session various queries of Electoral systems like Voter Registration, Helpline number of Election office, Grievance Redressal, National Voters' Day etc were addressed by the Chief Electoral Officer. He reiterated the importance of encouraging the youth to register as voters.

A Nukkad Natak was performed by "MRIDANG" based on the theme of Women Empowerment. This was followed by distribution of awards by the CEO to Ms. Priyanka Singh, Nodal Officer(ELC) and the students who excelled in the debate competition.

Dr. Ranbir Singh: An Electoral Literacy Club/ Voter Awareness Forum is established in colleges to sensitize students about electoral rights, process of voter registration and electoral participation through interesting activities and games.

Dr. Ranbir Singh also enlightened the students about the mobile apps created by the Election Commission of India for the public such as the Voter Helpline app, PwD App, c-vigil App etc.
