Jashn-e-Matdaan: A Celebration of Democracy in South Delhi

New Delhi

April 27th, 2024

South Delhi witnessed a grand celebration of democracy at the Jashn-e-Matdaan event at the Qutub Minar premises. Organized by the Office of the District Election Officer, South Delhi district, this event underscored the importance of voter education and participation ahead of the upcoming General Lok Sabha Election 2024.

The Chief Electoral Officer, Shri. P Krishnamurthy, was the chief guest on the occasion. The event also saw notable attendees including the District Election Officer of South Delhi, Sh. Mekala Chaitanya Prasad, and the Deputy Commissioner of Police (South), Sh. Ankit Chouhan, among others.

Shri P Krishnamurthy, CEO of Delhi, emphasized the importance of these initiatives by noting that such programs are organized to encourage all voters to participate in the elections and exercise their right to vote. He highlighted that one of the reasons for the low voting percentages in the national capital is urban apathy. He urged the audience to take the message of contributing to the nation through voting and to spread this message among all to ensure a robust turnout on the 25th of May 2024.

The evening was filled with enlightening and entertaining cultural performances, including a skit focusing on voter literacy, which delivered powerful messages on the importance of every single vote. Additionally, attendees were treated to a vibrant cultural dance performance set to the inspiring tune of "Main Bharat Hun," which resonated deeply with the audience.

The highlight of the event was a spectacular laser light show projected onto the iconic Qutub Minar, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The show was not just a feast for the eyes but also carried impactful messages urging citizens to participate in the upcoming elections.
