PRESS RELEASE

Your Vote, Your Voice – Dial 1950 for Assistance

One Helpline for All Your Electoral Queries

1950: Accessible, Reliable, and Citizen-Friendly Helpline

NEW DELHI

Dated: 23.12.2024

The Chief Electoral Officer of Delhi, Smt. R. Alice Vaz, IAS iterated the availability of the Voter Helpline Number 1950 (Toll-Free) to assist citizens for their electoral queries and complaints. This effort focuses on improving accessibility and ensuring that every voter receives accurate information and timely support.

The Voter Helpline - 1950 serves as the first point of contact for citizens seeking assistance with electoral services. Callers can inquire about various queries, including EPIC (Voter ID), Electoral Roll, Polling Station Details, Online Registration, Voting Dates, and other election-related matters. The helpline is designed to provide comprehensive and user-friendly support to all voters in English and Hindi language.

In addition to providing information, the helpline facilitates complaint registration. Citizens can report issues related to electoral services by dialing this toll-free number, 1950. Feedback and suggestions from callers are also encouraged to help improve the quality of services offered.

To ensure inclusivity and accessibility, the helpline offers assistance in approved local/regional language. It operates 7 days a week, from 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM, allowing citizens to connect at their convenience.

For further information, citizens can call 1950 (Toll-Free) or visit the official website <https://www.ceodelhi.gov.in/> of the Chief Electoral Officer, Delhi.
