

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER, DELHI
Old St. Stephen's College Building,
Kashmere Gate, Delhi-110006

PRESS RELEASE

- Chief Electoral Officer, Delhi organises “Voter Beats 2025” musical event to promote voter awareness for upcoming Delhi Assembly Elections
- Large number of enthusiastic young audience attended the program and made it grand & eventful

New Delhi

Dated: 14.01. 2025

The office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Delhi today successfully organized an energetic musical event, ‘Voter Beats 2025, at Sunder Nursery to encourage voter awareness and facilitate participation ahead of upcoming Delhi Assembly Election 2025. The Chief Electoral officer of Delhi Smt. R Alice Vaz was the chief guest on the occasion. The musical event, which featured performances by popular band, SaDHO, aimed to celebrate democracy and inspire citizens, especially first-time and young voters, to actively participate in the democratic process.

Speaking on the occasion, the Chief Electoral Officer (CEO) of Delhi, Ms. R. Alice Vaz, highlighted the significance of these initiatives, stating that such programs are designed to motivate all voters to actively participate in elections and exercise their right to vote.

The CEO said, “Young voters play a vital role in shaping the future of our democracy. Your vote is your voice. I urge young voters to come forward and participate in the electoral process. By casting their votes, young citizens can directly influence policy decisions and contribute to a stronger democratic system

Several other activities are being planned as a part of Systematic Voters’ Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) for public awareness and voter participation. Yet another such initiative, a qawwali programme will be organised in Central Park in Connaught place on January 18.